Army Exhibition for Schools (AES) at Aldershot

Friday 14th July 2006

On Friday 14th July 2006, the first Army Exhibition for schools was held in Aldershot. It was a fantastic free day out for students and teachers alike and gave students the chance to develop their understanding of the Army both as a career opportunity and as part of their Citizenship programme.

An action-packed and fun-filled day was planned with fantastic arena displays, sports competitions and activities, careers information and displays.

There was the famous Kings Troop performing its thrilling musical drive, displays by the Parachute Regiment Freefall Team, the Red Devils and the Princess of Wales's Royal Regiment Freefall Team, the Flying Tigers.

There were various sporting competitions, ranging from Beat the Army Goalie to mini obstacle courses. Students were invited to play with the Army band. Everyone had a chance to get up close to some of the machinery and equipment.
