Year 9 see 'Elizabeth' at Oxted Cinema

Tuesday 13th November 2007

On the evening of Tuesday 13th November five students in Year 9 who studied Tudor History with Mr. Hart last year visited Oxted Cinema to see the movie Elizabeth: The Golden Age which dramatized much of the period studied, including the reign of Elizabeth I, the plots involving Mary Queen of Scots supposedly organizing the assassination of the Queen, and the Spanish Armada.

The students were accompanied by Mr. Hart and Mrs. Thomas, who worked as STA on this topic. The visit was self-funding as the students agreed to pay for the visit using their own pocket money, and staff paid for themselves.

The visit was enjoyed by all, although it was necessary afterwards to discuss the fact that we were watching a movie, and some of the details in it would have been changed to make the movie more exciting (or romantic!).
