Processing, Personal Data and Data Subjects

The Personal Data processing activities carried out by the Supplier under this Agreement may be described as follows:

1. Subject matter of processing

The WHEEL OF INDEPENDENCE™ Framework enables customers to enter, store, and retrieve data on a student's current level and progress in respect of their independence. This information is stored on the Supplier's server. The Customer can look at individual and group data to gather an overview of the progress made by a cohort or whole school/college. The Supplier will also use the Personal Data in order to aggregate the Personal Data to evaluate and improve the tool and for benchmarking purposes.

2. Nature and purpose of processing

The purpose of the WHEEL OF INDEPENDENCE™ Framework is to store data in a manner which is easily accessible and interpretable, such as individual reporting and target sheets, to enable customers to track their students' progress in respect of their level of independence. The data is entered by the Customer on the tool, stored on the Supplier's servers, and structured in a way so as to make it easily interpretable for the Customer. The Customer can retrieve its full data (and not any other customer's data).

The Supplier can retrieve an anonymised aggregated data set. This will enable the Supplier to evaluate and improve the tool, track the average progress through the tool and thus progress towards independent living. All Personal Data processed will be aggregated and may be split to demonstrate progress made within different groups such as male/female; day/residential, pupil premium/no pupil premium. For the purposes of aggregation, the Personal Data will be anonymised during the aggregation process, such that neither the Supplier, nor any other person looking at the aggregated data, would be able to identify an individual from the aggregated data. Individual organisations will never be named within research without permission from the relevant organisation.

The Personal Data shall, unless deleted prior owing to a data subject exercising their right to be forgotten, be erased within three (3) years from the date on which the Customer deletes its account, so that the Customer may re-activate its account without having lost all their pupils' data.

3. Categories of Personal Data

- Name, surname
- Date of birth
- Pupil's entitlement to pupil premium (e.g. for free school meals)
- Gender
- Notes on each pupil's progress in respect of independence in the following areas:

4. Categories of data subjects

The data collected is about the students/clients of the Customer in respect of whom data is inputted by the Customer into the WHEEL OF INDEPENDENCE™ framework.

5. Duration

Personal Data will be processed for the duration of this Agreement and for 3 years following termination of the Customer's subscription, unless the Customer requests that the Supplier deletes its Personal Data prior to this date.
