Dear Parents / Carers,

On 17th September, Instagram announced new safety settings for teenage users. These will be determined by their age and “guided” by parents and carers to “better support parents, and give them peace of mind that their teens are safe with the right protections in place”. The new ‘teen accounts’ will be live in the UK within 60 days of the announcement.

The changes have received a variety of responses, with NSPCC stating that the changes are “a step in the right direction” but they “can put the emphasis on children and parents needing to keep themselves safe”.
